Description

We are a small TICA cattery located in Arvada Colorado. We are TICA registered and Inspected/Licensed in the State of Colorado. As a small Cattery, all of our kittens are raised as a part of our family with wonderful temperaments, our kittens are held from the day they are born until they go to their forever homes. What this means for you, we only have one litter at a time and no more than two litters per healthy queen a year. This value allows us to produce top quality, healthy, affectionate cats one litter at a time. Our Bengal cats are show quality from champion lines and clearly pass this on to their kittens. They are chosen not only for their beautiful markings, but for their loving temperaments and solid good health.
